Will Stroet of Will's Jams is a JUNO-nominated musician, nationally recognized educator and former CBC Kids TV star. His high-energy rock-blues music in English and French is full of witty wordplay and sing-along choruses, inspiring kids to be active, creative, caring and community-minded.

He discovered his talent for writing kids music while completing his BEd at UBC. After releasing his first album in 2005 and performing a hundred shows, Will knew he had found his calling. In 2009, he left teaching to pursue music full time and has never looked back. To date, Will has performed 2000+ young audience shows across Canada and China.

Will's 11 albums in English and French have garnered national acclaim, including a 2017 JUNO nomination, 8 nominations from the Western Canadian Music Awards, 3 from the Canadian Folk Music Awards and 2 from the SiriusXM Indies. In 2015, UBC's Faculty of Education honoured Will in their top 100 Alumni awards.

"We've hired Will's Jams for several CBC concerts. Will's one of the most charismatic children's musicians I've worked with who writes catchy music that both kids and parents enjoy. His high energy show always fills the entire plaza and is one of the most popular with the most raucous dancing! We look forward to working with Will for many years to come."
